

THREE HUNDRED.

Hopkins County Gives a Republican Plurality.

LARGE REPUBLICAN VOTE CAST.

Gain of Thirteen Hundred Plurality Compared With 1896.

THERE WERE 250 BROWN VOTES CAST

St. CHARLES, Isley, and the Two Earlington Precincts Show Great Gains.

Hopkins county gave Tuesday 301 plurality for Taylor and elected Ben T. Robinson, Republican for Representative by 271 majority over W. D. Orr, the Democratic nominee.

J. F. Dempsey, Democratic nominee for Railroad Commissioner, made some gains over his ticket in Hopkins county, but the figures in his race are not at hand.

According to the fullest and most reliable returns obtainable there were 2,600 votes cast for Taylor and 2,396 for Goebel in the county. In 1896 there were 2,475 votes cast in Hopkins for McKinley and 3,457 for Bryan. Compared with the 1896 vote the election of Tuesday shows a gain in the vote in this county of 1,283 in favor of the Republican ticket.

The Brown ticket polled about 250 votes in the county. In 1896 the Palmer and Buckner vote in the county was only 52. Some of the Brown democrats became incensed at the outrages perpetrated on their party in Louisville, and at the last moment, threw their strength to Taylor in order to make Goebel's defeat overwhelming.

Hopkins county had been given fair treatment in the appointment of election officers and the day passed off as quietly as the quiet activity of political workers could permit. No trouble is reported in the county.

The most conservative claims made by Goebel men were that Goebel would carry the county 17, from 250 to 100, many putting the figure as high as 700 and the great slump in the democratic vote and gain in the Republican vote was a surprise to the democratic leaders throughout the county.

Those figuring and hard work is evidenced by the gains shown in most precincts in the county. Four precincts gave Taylor a plurality of 192 and showed a gain of 319 in pluralities over the vote cast in these precincts in 1897. These precincts are in order of plurality for Taylor are Isley 149; N. E. Earlington 124; Lake, Earlington, 145; St. Charles, 101. In order of gain in Republican plurality over the 1897 vote these are as follows: N. E. Earlington, 103; Lake, Earlington, 99; Dalton, 91; Dawson, 86; Isley 85; Charleston, 64; White Plains 57; St. Charles 52. Nearly all other precincts have made lesser Republican gains.

EARLINGTON PRECINCTS

Saw Large Gains Since the 1897 Election.

The election passed off quietly and fairly at Earlington. Good men were in charge of the polls and the voting proceeded smoothly throughout the day with only one thing to stir the regular movement of hard workers and active election officers. That was the giving out of the ballots at the Northeast precinct a short while after dinner hour.

County Clerk Braslier had furnished to the Northeast precinct 151 ballots less than he should have furnished under the law and when notified came out post haste and brought additional ballots to complete the election. It is not thought that any lost their votes by the delay which was only slight.

The thoroughness of Republican organization and work was manifest in the two Earlington precincts. There were never so active workers seen at any previous election, and nearly all of them were doing all they could to pile up as large a majority as possible against Goebel.

The Republican strength was almost fully polled and the results were a surprise to all who did not know the interest of Republicans and the apathy of many Democrats who were counted in the Goebel column. Very many of the latter did not go to the polls at all and those who lived in the country, most of them, stayed at home. Not so the Republican vote. They came to a body and if any lagged a friendly word reminded him to vote early.

Compared with the vote for Appellate Clerk in 1897, which was taken since those precincts were constituted as they now are, the Republican ticket received in Lake this year, 99 more votes than it did then and in Northeast precinct 103 more.

The Brown vote here was forty-one, as compared with Palmer and Buckner vote of six in these two precincts in 1896.

The Goebel leaders in Earlington figured that Republicans would carry the two precincts by 100. The majority for Taylor in the two precincts was 239, with Robinson for Representative running close with the ticket.

Because of the outrages threatened on the Brown democrats at Louisville, which seem to have since been perpetrated, many of the local Brown democrats openly declared during the last few days that they would vote the Republican ticket and give Goebel the hardest lick at command. Some of them did this here and in the county, but they still polled about 250 votes for Brown, while only 52 were cast in the county for Palmer and Buckner in 1896.

Tobacco Hogsheads.

An important article to the farmers of the State and especially those along the rivers at this time is "knock-down" tobacco hogsheads, which are being received in large numbers by the planters. The hoops staves and heads are bundled compactly and in this way conveyed directly to the barn, where they are set up and tobacco packed in them and sent to the market to be sold. Large numbers are being shipped from Cincinnati and Louisville, and many of them reach this section of the state, although the demand is greater along the rivers, where they can be landed on the farms and thus save the expense and trouble of hauling.—Lexington Herald.

Coal Company Sued.

The Shaysville Coal and Coke Company, of near Evansville, Ind., was sued for damages last week by six of the negroes injured in the attack on non-union miners on the night of June 21st of this year. The suits are for $2,000 each.

The negroes are all from Hopkins County, and went to Evansville to take the places of the striking workmen. They were enroute to the mines to begin work when they were fired on and considerably injured. The attorneys for the plaintiffs are Cox and Gordon, of Mailesville, while P. W. Frey, of Evansville, is the counsel for the defendants.

Election Fights.

Christy Gallant, an election officer in Magoffin county, was fatally wounded while trying to suppress a fight. Four men were wounded at Bee Springs, in Edmonson County. One man was seriously wounded in Madison County.

A difficulty occurred at Lancaster, election day, in which Ben Baker was shot twice by Hinton Clark. The trouble came up over a personal matter and had no connection with the election.

Clash at Covington.

The chief of police, of Covington and two of his men were arrested at Covington Tuesday, upon warrants issued by U. S. Commissioner Funnell and sworn to by Harvey Myers. They were charged with interfering with election officers. They were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshals Lane, Isbell and Compton and were placed under $2,000 bonds. They will be presented for trial Saturday morning.

It is in accordance with Anglo-Saxon blood that deserters from the British army in time of peace are returning and clamoring to be sent to the front in Africa. The irascibility of army life is when there is no fighting in prospect, and the Anglo-Saxon is always ready for a good bruising fight. The boys whose lot was most unluckily during our Spanish war were those who never got in sight of the firing line.

The will of Capt. D. R. Beard, of Hopkinsville, was probated Monday. He left a large estate to be divided among his nephews and nieces. His step-daughter gets a considerable amount.

THE WEIGHT WAS LIFTED.

Continental Stories of British Disaster Are Now Shown to Be False.

GEN. WHITE IS STILL HOLDING HIS OWN.

Movement of the Boers into Cape Colony Beginning to Awaken British Fears That They Have Greatly Underestimated the Forces They Will Have to Meet.

London, Nov. 6.—An immense weight was lifted from the public mind by a brief dispatch, published this morning, by which the continental stories of disaster at Ladysmith were proved to be false, although the dispatch itself revived the anxiety of the more timid in another direction, as it indicated that Gen. White, instead of sitting tight and acting wholly on the defensive, as it is held in many quarters he ought to do, persists in making sorties and risking another Nicholson's Nek disaster. Generally, however, the cheery tone of the dispatch, showing that there is no anxiety at Ladysmith as regards the ability of the beleaguered garrison to hold its own, country.

Boer's Hill Still Enclosed.

From the fact that Gen. White is able to take the offensive and shell a Boer camp, it seems that Ladysmith is not so closely besieged as was supposed. Not much importance, however, is attached to the shelling of the Boer laager, as the war office has no intention of the story that the Orange Free State's camp at Boer's Hill has been captured. Were this true, it might have considerable effect on the future attitude of the Orange Free State, which is not so directly concerned in the conflict as the Transvaal.

A New British Fear.

The movement of Boers into Cape Colony is beginning to awaken British fear that they have greatly underestimated the forces they will have to meet, and that Gen. Buller's task may not be so easy as anticipated. It is becoming apparent that all the British calculations, based on the loyalty of population, are hopelessly at sea, or there has been a very serious leakage of Dutch sympathizers from Natal and Cape Colony. Otherwise there is no accounting for the large forces of burghers reported from all directions. The war office, consequently, is being urged to have more troops in readiness for all possible developments.

DISQUIETING RUMORS HEARD.

All kinds of gloomy speculation in the absence of any real news from Natal.

London, Nov. 7.—The war office announced at midnight that no dispatches had been received beyond those already made public, and that nothing further would be issued before noon to-day. Thus not a solitary official item of news has been posted for nearly 24 hours.

A Crop of Disquieting Rumors.

This has given rise to a crop of rumors that Ladysmith's ammunition is exhausted; that Sir George Stewart-White is mortally wounded; that both sides are being conciliated; that either untold happenings have taken place. For all of these reports there is absolutely no foundation. At the same time the British have had little to stimulate him within the last 24 hours, except the news of the continued arrival of the Ladysmith garrison and its slight successes last Thursday and Friday.

Under Consideration Dismissed.

Advices from other parts of South Africa are distinctly unfavorable, and everything points to a critical situation in Natal and the northern portions of Cape Colony, likely to grow more acute until Gen. White is either relieved or decisively defeated. No body dares to think of capitulation. Rather than that he is expected to stand stoutly, to make a desperate effort to cut his way through the Boers' back into lower Natal and to join hands with the garrison there.

A MUNICIPAL PAWN SHOP.

A New Dispensary in Chicago for the Benefit of the Poor when Paupers "Mince Oakes."

Chicago, Nov. 7.—A municipal pawnshop, operating under a law passed by the last legislature, was opened here yesterday, and judging from the number of applicants for loans, will be a success. The institution is operated under a state charter and loans money at one per cent, a month instead of the customary five to ten per cent, and upwards charged by pawnbrokers. The first and chief object of the society as announced, is to protect poor people who borrow money on small chattels. The president of the society is J. V. Farrell, Jr.

A Successful Development.

Whitney, Man, Nov. 7.—There was a rather startling development at the Anderson trial when J. W. Harris, city attorney, produced the remainder of the $62,000 stolen from the Madison bank. Mr. Harris found it near where the rest was buried, and kept the money in secret except to tell it to a lawyer until the day the money was produced in court.

Meat Shops Closed.

All the meat shops of Earlington will be closed on Sunday. Hereafter no meat will be sold on that day. Bear this in mind and supply your own on Saturday night.

Now that the Election is over, the next thing on docket will be for the men who have been calling each other things, liars etc., to kiss and make up and retire to the quiet pursuits of private life.

A BOER CAMP CAPTURED.

After an Artillery Duel the Boer Camp at Heister's Hill, Near Ladysmith, Was Captured.

London, Nov. 6.—A special dispatch from Ladysmith, describing Thursday's fighting, says:

"The artillery duel at dawn, in which the Boers' guns were silenced, was intended to occupy the Boers and to enable Sir George Stewart-White to achieve his purpose—the capture of the Boer camp behind Heister's hill.

"For this purpose the lance was used. Natal engineers and Natal border riders started under Gen. French at sunrise, and got within striking distance before the enemy was aware of their presence. A field battery was also sent, and it seemed a good position, commanding the enemy's camp, which was a large one, lined with army wagons and other vehicles.

"Heister's hill was well fortified and provided with good guns. At nine o'clock the British opened fire, the Boers replying with spirit, but bad aim.

"The British quickly sent a 42-pound shell into camp, inflicting terrible loss and spreading panic among the enemy. Our guns then started shelling the position, the Boers fleeing precipitately, leaving many dead and wounded, as well as the whole camp and equipment in the hands of the British. Their success will upset the plans of the Orange Free State command, and possibly will prevent them giving the British further trouble from the west."

FOR RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

The First Assistant Postmaster General Makes a Strong Plea with Convincing Arguments.

Washington, Nov. 6.—A vigorous plea for rural free delivery is made in the annual report of First Assistant Postmaster-General Heath, made public last night.

Mr. Heath said the service so far had resulted in increased postal receipts, enhanced value of the mails of farmers, reached by rural free delivery of from $2 to $3 per acre; a general improvement of the condition of the roads traversed by the rural carrier; better prices for farm products; the production of better crops. It is worth noting that the service has been extended to the entire United States, leaving the undelivered no alternative except ignominious retreat.

That there was no time after Dewey's victory over the Spaniards when it was possible "to withdraw the forces either with honor to ourselves or with safety to the inhabitants."

That the insurrection is confined to six provinces of Luzon, with a population of only 1,500,000.

That the Philippines are not capable of self-government.

That if American authority should be withdrawn the islands would lapse into a state of anarchy.

That Aguinaldo's purpose is not to give his people independence, but the continuance of his own arbitrary and despotic power.

DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE.

National Executive Committee of the Democratic National Committee to Meet November 20.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The Record says: The meeting of the National democratic executive committee in Chicago, November 20, is to be a double-barreled affair. It will be the business meeting of the party. William J. Bryan will be in the city at that time, and senators and national representatives on their way to Washington from the west will spend a couple of days in this city, to meet eastern and southern democrats, who are expected to gather here November 20. It is probable that an address to the democrats by the party will be issued by the committee after the party leaders have held a conference. The character of this address will depend upon the result of the elections next Tuesday.

RUINOUS CONFLAGRATION.

Every Business House But Two in Thomaston, Ala., Laid in Ruins by Fire.

Thomaston, Ala., Nov. 4.—A disastrous fire started at 11 o'clock Thursday night in the office of N. H. Boyle's large store, and by one o'clock every business house in town except Morrell's and J. E. Turner & Sons were burned. Very few goods were saved from any of the buildings, as the fire, under the impetus of a high northwest wind, spread with fearful rapidity.

Six hundred bales of cotton in the public warehouse were burned, with little insurance on it.

HE ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS.

George W. Bickett, a Colored Porter, Held For the Theft of $6,000 From Adams Express Co.

New York, Nov. 4.—George W. Bickett, a colored porter employed by the Adams Express Co., was arraigned in the police court and held for trial on a charge of stealing a money bag containing $6,000 in gold from the company's office on Saturday last. Bickett confessed the theft, and said he had taken the gold out of the company's office in a bundle of wood.

A Coal Mine Combustion.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 4.—It is stated that the project to combine all the coal workings of the district is practically accomplished, and formal transfers of the various mines will be made within a few days. The capitalization of the new company is not known, but it is believed it will be between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000. The new selling agency will be located in this city.

Heavy Family Heavens.

Tecoma, Wash., Nov. 4.—A. M. Dewey, special agent of the government department of labor, announces that all members of the Dewey family related to Admiral Dewey will hold a reunion at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, in New York city, in June or February.

Three Children Cremated.

Rowan, Ia., Nov. 4.—John Owen's three small children were burned to death, Thursday, while their parents were away. The children were only 20 days old, but the flames were too quick for their efforts to save the children.

A Recluse Found Dead.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—A special to the Times-Herald from Galea, Ill., says Olsen, better known as "Harve Under the big Swede," was found dead to-day in his house, five miles from here. For 25 years he lived the life of a recluse.

Yellow Fever.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—Health officers report two new cases of yellow fever at Key West and two at Miami yesterday. No deaths.

THE PHILIPPINE REPORT.

Brief Abstract of the Preliminary Report Submitted to the President Thursday Night.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The Philippine commission made its preliminary report to the president, Thursday evening, and it was immediately given to the public.

The Commission's Findings. The report is a compact summary of conditions on the islands, as the commission left them; of the historical events which preceded the Spanish war; of the original Filipino insurrection; of the exchange between Admiral Dewey and the other American commanders and the insurgents; the breaking out and progress of the present insurrection, and finally a statement of the capacity of the Philippines for self-government.

The Points Emphasized. Among the points emphasized in the report are the following:

That Admiral Dewey made no promise to Aguinaldo.

That Aguinaldo forced the war upon the United States, leaving the undelivered no alternative except ignominious retreat.

That there was no time after Dewey's victory over the Spaniards when it was possible "to withdraw the forces either with honor to ourselves or with safety to the inhabitants."

That the insurrection is confined to six provinces of Luzon, with a population of only 1,500,000.

That the Philippines are not capable of self-government.

That if American authority should be withdrawn the islands would lapse into a state of anarchy.

That Aguinaldo's purpose is not to give his people independence, but the continuance of his own arbitrary and despotic power.

On the face of late returns, Ohio seems to have gone republican by from 30,000 to 40,000 plurality. Late bulletins indicate that Jones drew heavily from democrats than republicans. McLean carried Cincinnati and Hamilton county.

Both parties are claiming Kentucky, and changes of fraud are made by the late returns. Early reports indicated that Goebel (dem.), candidate for governor, had been elected, but later returns cast down his lead so swiftly that at 3 a. m. the result was in doubt, with the chances favoring Taylor (rep.). Close associates of Goebel, however, had not given up the fight. The legislature probably is democratic, which, in case of a contest, probably would send Goebel.

Massachusetts. Massachusetts went republican by a reduced plurality. It is estimated that Crane carried the state 50,000. Candidates gave the republican candidate for governor 2,000 plurality last year, is democratic. The democrats have gained several members of the legislature.

New Jersey. New Jersey returns indicate that the republicans will retain control of the senate and assembly. The democrats made gains, but not sufficient to influence the result in the senatorial election, which takes place in 1901.

Mississippi. In Mississippi the entire democratic state ticket was elected by an overwhelming majority. Only a few of the populist candidates were in the field and they were badly defeated.

Virginia. Returns from Virginia indicate that the democrats will have a tremendous majority in the legislature. Thomas S. Martin will succeed himself in the United States senate. No fight was made by the republicans. The vote was perhaps the smallest ever polled in a general election in Virginia.

New York. The republicans will control the next legislature by a loss of two. Tammany kept the decks in New York county. Mazet was beaten in the Nineteenth assembly district.

Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania elected Col. James E. Barnett (rep.) for state treasurer, by a majority of about 150,000. Philadelphia authorized the issue of $12,000,000 loan for the improvement of the city water supply. The republicans gained in Philadelphia is estimated at 40,000.

South Dakota. It is estimated that the republican nominee for supreme judge in South Dakota was elected by at least 10,000 plurality.

Iowa. Returns from Iowa indicate that the republican state ticket is elected by 50,000 plurality. The republicans also made gains in the legislature.

Poor Way to Correct an Evil. Liberty, Mo., Nov. 8.—Fifteen or more masked "regulators" entered the Arthur hotel, the leading hostelry here, after Monday midnight, took John D. Robinson, the landlord, out of bed, led him in his night clothes to the cemetery and buried him. He was allowed to return to the hotel on his promise to leave Liberty within 15 days. Complaint has been made that the hotel had become disreputable.

Growth of the Postal Service. Washington, Nov. 8.—During the last fiscal year the number of post offices in the United States increased from 72,926 to 74,854; the number of domestic money orders issued from 27,798,678, representing $401,113,717, to 29,070,870, representing $442,483,354, a net increase in number of 1,809,792, and in volume of $41,369,637.

Too Important to Hiclose. London, Nov. 8.—The Morning Post today makes the following announcement: "We have received a dispatch from Washington respecting Anglo-American policy in the far east which is of such a nature that it is desirable, at the present juncture, to withhold it from the public until we are able to inform it fully."

THE CAMPAIGN IS NOW ON.

Gen. Wheaton's Expedition Has Left for Lingayen Gulf Under Naval Escort.

THE ADVANCE OF MACARTHUR'S TROOPS.

The Capture of Mountain Coast the Philippines Nearly Gen. MacArthur's Advance Temporarily Delayed by Heavy Rain—Lively Work From Now On.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The war department has received the following cablegram:

Gen. MacArthur's Report. Manila, Nov. 6.—Wheaton's expedition, 2,500 strong, on the transports Sheridan and Aztec and two coasting steamers, conveyed by three war vessels, left for Lingayen gulf this morning. MacArthur's troops advanced to Magalang yesterday, clearing the country between Angeles and Arayat. They encountered about 1,000 of the enemy at different points. O'Brien, with a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, two troops of the Fourth cavalry and Slaven's scouts, moving on road from Magalang, east of Angeles, encountered and drove the enemy in the direction of Magalang, who left 49 dead on the field. O'Brien captured 23 prisoners and 14 rifles. Col. Smith with the two other battalions of the Seventeenth, Hamilton's battery First artillery, and engineers and signal detachments, moved on the direct road from Angeles to Magalang, capturing the latter place and inflicting a loss on the 50 prisoners and a large amount of insurgent transportation. Our casualties were reported at 12 wounded. Heavy rain the last three days have rendered decisive movements by Lawton's troops impossible. He now has abundant supplies at San Isidro and further north and will operate to the south and ascend when the country is submerged by rain.

Nebraska. St. Louis, Nov. 8.—An analysis of the election returns received up to this morning show the following results:

Nebraska. The fusionists have carried the state by a majority over that of 1898, electing former Gov. Holcomb to the supreme bench. The democrats estimate the majority at not less than 15,000. Republicans concede a fusion victory, but by a smaller majority. Douglas county, in which Omaha is situated, has gone democratic. The fusionists made gains in nearly all republican districts.

Maryland. John Walter Smith (dem.) has been elected governor over Lowmire (rep.) by a majority estimated at from 10,000 to 15,000. It is reasonably certain that the lower house of the assembly will be democratic by a good majority, and that the democrats will elect enough state senators to overcome the republican advantage among the holders of seats, thereby controlling both branches of the legislature.

On the face of late returns, Ohio seems to have gone republican by from 30,000 to 40,000 plurality. Late bulletins indicate that Jones drew heavily from democrats than republicans. McLean carried Cincinnati and Hamilton county.

Both parties are claiming Kentucky, and changes of fraud are made by the late returns. Early reports indicated that Goebel (dem.), candidate for governor, had been elected, but later returns cast down his lead so swiftly that at 3 a. m. the result was in doubt, with the chances favoring Taylor (rep.). THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1899.

TAYLOR is our next Governor.

When Hopkins county goes republican by 821, there are republican gains in other Kentucky counties.

ETERNAL vigilance is the price of liberty, and Republicans in Kentucky are still vigilant.

GOEBELISM has been given the sudden check that was expected from liberty loving, courageous Kentuckians.

THE people of Kentucky have denounced at the polls the man who has threatened the industries of the State.

BEN T. ROBINSON deserves the hearty support he got Tuesday and which sends him to represent Hopkins county in the Legislature.

JUDGE CLINTON J. PRATT has great reason to be proud of Hopkins county and the hearty endorsement given him and the entire Republican ticket here on Tuesday.

WARREN is another county in which honesty in elections has triumphed. Warren went 850 for Bryan but defeated Goebel by 350, a slump from the Bryan vote of 1,200.

The sincerity of purpose of the Brown Democrats of Hopkins county stands the test. About 250 votes for Brown in this county and only 52 for Palmer and Beckner in 1896.

THERE is safety in the Log Cabin. If the people have sent to their Legislative halls men who are opposed to Goebelism, the infamous Goebel election law will be repealed first and just laws enacted afterward.

When a great principle is at stake the good people of Hopkins county may be expected to stand up for the right. They did it fearlessly Tuesday and this county, which gave Bryan 982 majority, defeated Goebelism by 321.

ST. CHARLES, Northeast Earlington, Lake Earlington and H. Sley are the precincts that did the work. Each of these precincts gave Taylor over a hundred majority, and the total majority from these four precincts is 492.

REPUBLICANS are still alert everywhere in the State and will be so—and determined—until a fair count is had and the final official returns are in, which are sure to elect Gen. W. S. Taylor and the entire Republican State ticket.

With the State against Goebel, it is probable that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will continue to operate under its charter, which Mr. Goebel said he wanted to get his hands on, and continue to give its employees good work and good wages.

PERHAPS for the first time in its history the Courier-Journal yesterday left out of its first issue after a State election all trace of the Democratic crowing rooster. That paper was still trying to give support to Goebel claims, but did not have any rooster enthusiasm.

THE Brown Democrats, taking, as they did, a firm stand for honest principles against the infamous machinations of Goebelism, deserve the highest respect and commendation of honest people everywhere. And they have it. No man can escape the respect of his fellowmen who makes such political sacrifice without the hope of reward.

Madisonville City Election.

Madisonville, Nov. 8.—The full citizen ticket won out here yesterday by a majority of 36, after perhaps the hottest fight in a municipal election this city has ever known. The winning ticket is composed of the following gentlemen: A. E. Reese, C. B. Tate, Dr. R. L. Bone, John B. Harvey, Mike Clark and W. H. Jernigan.

A great effort was made to take from the citizens ticket the negroes, who were solidly in favor of that ticket. Some interesting things could be told, and names given, about occurrences and men in this connection. But the negroes, after having had a revel at somebody's expense went to the polls and voted the citizens ticket.

Rev. J. T. Cherry.

The Trenton Democrat has the following complimentary note in regard to Rev. J. T. Cherry, the new pastor of the Methodist church at that place. Bro. Cherry was formerly pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at this place, and has many friends here:

"The Rev. Cherry preached his first sermon, as per announcement, at the Methodist church in this city last Sunday morning. He also preached at night. At each service the church was comfortably filled with people, all anxious to hear the new minister, and it appears that every one was well pleased. It was clear from Mr. Cherry's Sunday discourse that he is quite a deep thinker, an able reasoner and a man of fine scholarly attainments."

Bradley's Stand.

Gov. Bradley had the Louisville legion ready for action at a moment's notice and was himself at their head ready to protect the rights of voters irrespective of party. He had nothing but the noblest of motives prompting him to take this stand. With him, it was purely a matter of duty. As the state's chief executive, it was his duty to protect the ballot, and he did it in a gentlemanly manner.

He has made an able and fearless governor and will surrender his office and retire to private life, followed by the respect of the best element of Kentucky's citizens.

Southern Industrial Conditions.

There is a vast improvement in the industrial conditions of the South during the year. Until recently Southern institutions have been forced to borrow all their money in New York, but now it can be obtained in the South at New York rates. In a large number of the banks in Georgia, three out of every four dollars on deposit belong to the farmers. This is a splendid state of affairs and is but another proof of the fact that our country was never in a more prosperous condition than at the present time. It is gratifying to learn of the progress that is being made along all lines of industry.

Magazine Club.

The Ladies' Magazine Club has been pleasantly entertained by Mrs. J. F. Foard, at Hecla, Saturday afternoon and the fine weather brought out quite a large attendance. Mrs. Burr opened the meeting by reviewing "The Study of Fiction" (Cosmopolitan), and Mrs. Paul M. Moore afterwards entertained the Club with a very amusing and well written article, "The Fervidness of Americans," by Ian MacLaren. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Burr, November 18, 1899, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. F. Foard and Miss Lucie Crenshaw will be the leaders.

A Large Crowd.

Never was a man greeted by a larger or more enthusiastic crowd in this county than the one that greeted Gen. W. S. Taylor at Madisonville. The trains were packed and many drove in, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. People were there from all over the county. Two brass bands were in attendance and much enthusiasm was manifested. His reception was indeed a cordial one, such as he so justly deserved.

Telephone Exchange.

Earlington is soon to have a telephone exchange. The Cumberland Telephone Company has already secured about forty-three subscribers and the exchange will be put in at an early date. It will be quite a convenience for the people of Earlington. The central office will be located upstairs in the new Robinson building, and Miss Sallie McGrath will be the operator.

Fire at Princeton.

Princeton, Ky., Nov. 5.—At about 4:30 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the old warehouse of Ed Rawls which was occupied by Eldred & Co. as a storage for farming implements, and by Slight & Lamb for machinery and before assistance could be rendered it was a mass of ashes. Total loss about $1,500 with no insurance.

A Cordial Reception.

Nashville will give the soldiers of the First Tennessee Volunteer Regiment a roasting welcome when they return. Great preparations have been made to that effect. The boys have served their country well and justly deserve the cordial welcome that awaits them upon their return from the Philippines.

Osteopaths to Meet.

The Osteopaths of the State will hold their annual meeting in Franklin November 11th. The state association of Osteopaths was formed at a meeting last year. A number of practitioners have come to the State during the year and membership is having a steady healthy growth.

Died Saturday Night.

Gertie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Burdick died Saturday night after a brief illness, and was buried at Grapevine cemetery Sunday afternoon. The Burdicks extend their sympathy to the family.

New Restaurant.

Mr. J. F. Lloyd has opened up a restaurant in the store room formerly occupied by J. W. Trevanion, the theater. He has his place of business nicely furnished, has a nice stock of goods and is opening up well.

Dropped Dead.

Mr. Thomas Johnston, a stone cutter and one of Hopkinsville's pioneer citizens, dropped dead at the breakfast table Tuesday morning. He was over seventy years of age,

"Honest Labor Bears a Lovely Face."

There is nothing more pleasing to look upon than a hearty, ruddy face, gained by honest toil. They are the saving of the nation, these toilers of both sexes, struggling for daily bread.

Pure blood makes them able to keep up the daily round of duty at home, shop or store. If the blood has a taint or impurity, or a run down feeling comes on, the one remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine for the blood.

Poor Blood.—"My blood was so poor that in hottest weather I felt cold. Hood's Sarsaparilla made me warm. It is the right thing in the right place." Hattie J. Taylor, Woodstown, N. J.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills are liver pills, the non-digesting and non-cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Red Hill Notes.

Mr. L. S. Bourland visited relatives at Nebo this week.

Rev. W. F. Crick preached a very interesting sermon at Atkinson's school house last Sunday.

Mrs. Elsie Long, of Caskey, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Denton for the past week, returned home last Saturday.

Rev. J. C. Mitchell will preach his first sermon at Cole's chapel next Sunday.

Mr. Peter Hight has a new guest in the form of a new girl baby.

Mrs. Campbell and little daughter, Anna, of Nebo, who have been visiting relatives here and at Oxford for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

We are happy to state that Perkins wears an expansionist smile this week. It's a girl.

Mr. Pat Wells was in this vicinity last week on business concerning his saw mill which he will move into our midst in a short time.

Mr. Z. T. Price received a very painful hurt a few days since. While cutting timber a tree struck his foot, breaking two bones.

S. H. Ruddle and M. G. Hicks, the champion orators of this vicinity met in joint debate at Atkinson's school house last Saturday night on the political issues of the day, and Mr. Hicks, the Goebel orator, made a speech that would have made Mr. Bryan, "the boy orator of the Platte," hang his head and acknowledge Mr. Hicks's superiority, but near the close, it is said, he waxed so warm in his arguments that he urged the voters to go to the polls on the 7th of November and vote for Grover Cleveland for Governor of Kentucky.

The startling fact again confronts us that in the midst of life we are in death. Only a few days ago we were called to mourn the loss of Mrs. Sarah Edwards, of the Nortonville vicinity, who died at the extreme old age of ninety-four. She had been confined to her couch for about two years as the result of a fall. She wore suffering silently and patiently and when the summons came she was ready and willing to be borne across the dark river on the white wings of the angels and be transplanted into the brighter and better climate, where the pure of this earth will one day be gathered.

Mrs. Edwards came from North Carolina before the war and settled in Hopkins county where she has lived until her death a few days ago. She was a devoted and faithful member of the Christian church, and was a large number of friends and relatives to mourn her loss, but we regret we were not able to attend. Though grandma's little loomage may be missed from its accustomed place and we are sorrowing for the dear old face we never shall see on earth again, we would not, were it possible, call her back again to this sinful and wicked world, when she is resting so sweetly on the golden shore.

The mortal remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at St. Charles, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. May the snow fall lightly over the lonely little mound where "dear departed" is laid and may beautiful birds sing sweetly over their resting place as they sang to them in the happy days gone by.

Sleep, grandma, where you lie.
In your lonely grave so deep,
Sleep while time rolls swiftly by,
And hearts with sorrow beat.
Hopes never seemed so near,
Earth so far away.
As when we laid you in the grave
That lonely autumn day.
O No Hoo.

Grapevine Items.

Rev. W. H. White, of Louisville, made an interesting talk at Sunday school Sunday.

Mrs. G. J. Grammar, of Cleveland, O., was a visitor here Sunday.

Elder W. C. Dimmitt, of Benjamin, Tex., will preach Sunday at 11 o'clock.

J. D. Sisk and Jas Tapp, of Dalton, were here Sunday.

Cy Carlisle has the best turnip crop in the neighborhood, he has four acres that will produce several hundred bushels.

S. L. Todd has rented his truck-farm near Madisonville to J. E. White, of Sedalia, Mo.

Wm. Riggins is setting out 5,000 fine raspberries this fall.

Ben Laffoon is treating his dwelling in a new roof and veranda.

L. F. Bailey and Miss Sallie Clark were married at the residence of Ben Laffoon. The groom is corner of this county and the bride is an industrious young lady.

The people of this vicinity regret to learn that J. B. Lindie, the efficient Sunday school superintendent, has moved, with his family, to Hecla to take charge of the electric plant.

Mr. Houlihan's Child Dead.

Louis, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houlihan, died about 7 o'clock Friday evening, after a long illness of typhoid fever. He was buried in the Catholic cemetery here Saturday afternoon. The Ecks extend sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MEN BLEW UP THE MAINE.

Are Said To Be On The Eve of Exposure.

[Meridian, Conn., telegram to the St. Louis Republic.]
The following special cable from Cuba was received in this city from Francis Atwater, field manager for the Red Cross in that country:

"Havana, Cuba, Nov. 4.—I have just learned from a well-known detective that he is now on the trail of the villains who blew up the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, the wreck of which I can see as I send this dispatch. One of the accomplices, according to my information, claims that he has not been treated right. He offers now to turn State's evidence if he is paid $15,000 to $20,000, so that he can live in seclusion in some foreign country, the remainder of his life, as he well knows that in Cuba or the United States he never would be allowed to live in peace. It is known that he is one of the dastardly cowards who caused the loss of so many lives. He claims that there were seven or eight in the plot, some of them now being in the United States and the others here."

Wise Words.

If the Philippine Commissioners are not competent to speak intelligently and advisedly respecting conditions in the Philippines both before and after the capture of Manila, who are? They are appointed to investigate and report, and Admiral Dewey, before the preliminary report was made, was conceded to be the best qualified to state the role Aguinaldo played before and after the occupation of the city. But because the Admiral indorses the preliminary report and adopts its statements some of the newspapers now claim that the Admiral does not know what he is talking about. But the people believe the Admiral.

A southern editor struck the keynote when he wrote the above common-sense paragraph. It represents the case just as it stands. These are facts, and facts are the most stubborn things in the world and we can't get around them. We must meet them face to face.

Crowe and Taylor.

The St. Charles, Mo., Banner-News contains the following complimentary note concerning Rev. Jno. M. Crowe, and his singer Mr. J. K. Taylor, who held a successful meeting here last spring:

"The Fifth Street Methodist church was filled to overflowing Sunday morning and evening, large audiences being present to hear the sermons delivered by Rev. John M. Crowe, the eloquent evangelist, who is conducting protracted meetings at the church for two weeks ending next Sunday night. Besides the regular services Rev. Mr. Crowe addressed the Epworth League at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening on the 'Sixteen Points of Methodism,' illustrating his remarks with drawings on the blackboard."

"The meetings will continue all this week, but a change has been made, services being held each morning from 10 to 11 o'clock instead of from 2:30 to 3:30 in the afternoon. To-night Rev. Mr. Crowe will take as his subject, 'How the Ostrich Lost Its Wings, or Character Tends to Final Fixity,' and Mr. Taylor will sing one of his beautiful solos, 'No Room in the Inn.' The general public is invited."

Several prominent capitalists of Tennessee are in Sturgis. Union county, inspecting the coal fields in the vicinity. The gentlemen composing this party are O. P. Wash, George Rice, S. L. Berry and W. W. Smith. The indications are that some $15,000 or $20,000 will be dropped among some of the land owners and several hundred thousands invested in a coal plant. As a big coal center Sturgis is stepping to the front.

Have You Heard of It?

You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact.

The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The approach of winter finds the mines of Hopkins county running at full blast. The coal companies are crowded with orders, and the prospect of a big winter work most flattering. Of course this is encouraging to the miners of this county, who always appreciate an opportunity to work and who, as a class, are contented with their employers and allow no outside dictation as to what they shall do, and the result of this amicable understanding between employer and employee is that our miners are a prosperous class and are fast becoming owners of homes, and in every way show forth their sterling manhood.

George Mills, who has been for sometime in the employ of the Oak-hill Coal Company, has severed his connection with said company.

The big attendance of miners at the Taylor speaking last week showed how they regarded his candidacy and who they would cast their ballot for.

The advance in the price of coal on the markets of the State is a step in the right direction for the good of the miner. There can be no doubt in the minds of the close observers but what for years past coal has been sold at too low a price.

The Gas Co., Independence, Kan., has struck a ten-foot vein of coal while boring for natural gas. It is stated that a shaft will be sunk.

A six-foot vein of coal was discovered at a depth of five feet at Hobson, twenty miles south of Bartlesville, Tex., recently. A company will be organized to work the mine.

The vein of coal recently discovered on Frosty Creek, 22 miles from Ellensburg, Wash., continues to widen and the quality is also improving.

It is said that there is a scarcity of laborers in the bituminous districts of Pennsylvania, and that 4,000 men could find employment.

Officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. say there is more business than their lines can handle, and the same is true with their competitors.

The Ohio Coal Traffic Association has advanced the freight rates on coal shipped from Ohio, western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The rate to Toledo was put up 10 cents, to Detroit 10 cents, to Chicago 15 cents, and to points in Michigan on the same basis.

The Baltimore & Ohio has carried 2,541,240 tons of Cumberland coal so far this year, an increase of 83,719.15 compared with last year's record.

Local coal merchants in Chattanooga have advanced the price of coal about 25 cents a ton, owing to its scarcity, and they claim little can be secured from the mines.

Sixty coke ovens will be built at Stoneham, near Middleboro, Ky., and 250 ovens will be built at Mud Lick. Work on the Mud Lick ovens will be commenced within sixty days.

Some 33,000 acres of coal and timber land in Scott county, Tenn., have been sold to Chicago capitalists. The new owners intend to build a railroad to the property and fully develop its resources.

Fairmount, W. Va., is five hours by rail from Pittsburg, and has a population of 10,000. The principal business of the town is coal mining. There are six mines within its limits, producing 600 car loads of coal daily.

The miners of Hopkins county are always remembered as it will be seen by the number elected for city offices at election this week. Among those so honored were J. B. Atkinson, Geo. C. Atkinson, J. W. Day and Thos. Blair, of Earlington.

Stern Facts.

The report of the Philippine Commission emphasizes two facts and in the future discussion of the Philippine question these two facts should be remembered. First, Admiral Dewey made no promises to Aguinaldo justifying the latter in expecting the United States Government would recognize the independence of the Philippines. Second, that the Filipinos are entirely unfit for self-government. Congress must devise and put in operation plans for their good government, but it must bear in mind the two prominent facts stated by the commission.—Nashville American.

Those who are so bitterly opposed to the policy of the president should consider the above facts as they really are. Men ought to look at both sides of any question before they take their stand. The reason so many people fall into serious error is because they take a certain stand on a great subject without looking into the whys and wherefores. Let's think before we try to speak.

Report Not True.

President Milton H. Smith, of the L. & N. railroad company, denies the report that the L. & N. company is to establish its own express service, severing its relations with the Adams Express Company. The report has been in circulation for some time. The contract with the Adams Express Company will be renewed January 1.

A Serious Accident.

A serious accident took place at Louisville Saturday night at the intersection of the L. & N. tracks and the Fourth-avenue car line. An east-bound L. & N. freight train collided with a north-bound street car, and the front part was crushed to pieces and the life passengers more or less injured. The blame for the accident is difficult to place.

Out of Employment.

Now that the campaign is over, we are at a loss to know what some of our gubernatorial campaign orators will do for pasture. For quite awhile they have been busily engaged in going for each other, but now it is all over, what will they do?
